In Appreciation

We, who originally compiled this book back in 1986, were very grateful for everyone who helped us collect the information. At that time, it was done by visits, telephone calls, or from other relatives. Then the information was entered into a Commodore 64 computer using many, many floppy disks. The 2021 update would not have been possible without all the hard work that was originally done in the 1980s by Steve and Jeanette Hinson and the late John W and Emma Hinson. Their information is the basis for the update today.

Thirty-five years later, we now have access to Ancestry, Find a Grave, Newspapers.com, Facebook and Google, as well as many other genealogy programs. Microsoft Word prompts us when a word is misspelled or if the wrong word is being used. (This can be interesting when the program doesn't understand how we Hinson cousins sometimes have spelled our names over the years.) There is not a "paper copy" unless we choose to print it ourselves. It is floating out there in "Internet Land" until we call for it.

Now in 2020 and 2021, with the COVID-19 pandemic causing us to stay close to home, we are having to depend more on the Internet for our information. So, as we said back in 1986, I know there are mistakes in this collection. Sometimes, a name or date has been an educated guess, with the hopes that a family member would step up to help us proof our research and make corrections. There are several descendants who have done just that and for them, I am forever grateful. After being contacted on Facebook messenger, a copy of the research was mailed to him or her to double check my assumptions. This feedback has been very helpful in making the information "right." Some descendants, who were contacted, chose not to participate and that is to be understood in this crazy time in which we are living cautiously. There will be some cousins whose names were missed or whose dates were incorrect. I apologize in advance, but I do hope that there will be enough correct information in this update to help you learn a little more about your ancestors and maybe get to know some of your many cousins.

Since most of the descendants still live in Stanly, Union, or Cabarrus Counties NC, I am making the book available to each of their County Libraries' Genealogy departments, so the information will be accessible to anyone who wants to read it or make copies of the pages that are interesting to them. A few people had said they would like to purchase a complete paper copy of the update, but at this time, I cannot afford to publish like we did in 1986. We are, however, able to upload it to Issuu.com, an online document hosting platform. This will give anyone in the world free and instant access.

As life continues, please feel free to contact me with new information on births, marriages, deaths, and I will try to input that information, so we will have a continuing copy for future reference.

And lastly, I would like to thank our daughter, Jodi Craiglow, who has been such an important technical support, editor, encourager, sympathetic ear, and all-around wonderful daughter. I dedicate this update to you. Love you forever!

Thank you again!

Dottie Dobbin Craiglow

A Note of Explanation

As you read about the descendants of John and Sarah Jane, each person has been assigned an identifying number. The first number is the birth order of their original children:

- 01 Ruben Horace Hinson
- 02 John Benjamin Hinson
- 03 Martha Lou Hinson
- 04 James Walter Hinson
- 05 Rebecca Jane Hinson
- 06 Israel Thompson Hinson
- 07 Durant R Hinson
- 08 Moses Hinson
- 09 Raymond Shute Hinson
- 10 Henry Jackson Hinson

The numbers that follow are the birth order of each generation of their descendants.

For example, my number is 7-2-3-1.

- 7 is for Durant R Hinson.
- 7-2 is for his second child, Dorthy J Hinson.
- 7-2-3 is for her third child, Eula Beatrice Presson.
- 7-2-3-1 is for me, her first child, Dorothy Ann Dobbin.

In the case that two distant cousins married each other, the spouse's number is noted also.
In the case of twins or triplets, birth order numbers have been randomly assigned.

There are a few abbreviations that have been used in the update:

- FNU – First Name Unknown
- LNU – Last Name Unknown, used when only the wife's married name was found.
- ABT – About. When the exact date is not known.
- POSSIBLY – When the name of a possible spouse or parent is found in records, but it has not been verified.

When you see a set of parentheses around a person's numbers, that means that the person is adopted. Though not a Hinson by birth, they are still Hinsons in our hearts.

A Little Background Info

John[1] Hinson, second of the eight known children of Goodwin[2] (or Goodwyn or Goodin) Hinson and his wife, Elizabeth Mann[3] was probably born sometime around 1844 in Big Lick, Stanly County NC. John, in his later years, told his grandchildren that he was born in 1836, but on the 1840 Montgomery County NC census, Goodwin and Elizabeth had no children listed. On the 1860 Stanly County NC census, John was listed as 15 years old. When he joined the Confederate Army in 1862, his age was listed as 18 years. Therefore, it is more likely that he was born around 1844. John enlisted into the Confederate Army on 1 Feb 1862 in Salisbury, Rowan County NC and was assigned to Company C of the 42nd North Carolina Infantry as a Private.

Goodwin Hinson probably was not a very prosperous farmer. In the Agricultural Schedule of the 1860 Census of Stanly County NC, it lists Goodwin Hinson as having 20 acres of improved land and 10 acres of unimproved land. He listed the cash value of his farm as $75.00, and the value of farm implements and machinery as $5.00. We could speculate that Goodwin and John heard that a $50.00 bounty was being paid for joining up with the Army of the Confederacy. Goodwin, at that time already about 47 years old, may have thought this would be a chance to help his family out – for at that time, many Southerners thought that the war would be over in a few months. As the fighting wore on, Goodwin may have realized that he had made a mistake in joining and that he needed to get home to his wife and their other seven children and their meager farm. This may be an explanation for his first desertion 24 Jul 1862, after having enlisted on 17 Mar 1862 (about 6 weeks after John had enlisted) in Salisbury, Rowan County NC, into Company C of the 42nd Infantry of the North Carolina Infantry, the same company that John was serving in. Goodwin was arrested 30 Mar 1863 and then deserted again on 30 Apr 1863. He was arrested 30 Sep 1863. He was court martialed and then executed for desertion on 27 Jan 1864 in Wilmington NC, where their company, including John, was stationed at the time and his body was buried in an unmarked grave there.

That day and the next couple of days have been handed down to us through the generations by John Hinson himself. (Since he enjoyed telling the stories and singing the songs of the war in his older years, we cannot be sure about the validity of the rest of his tale, but it makes a very interesting story.) (According to John,) The morning of 27 Jan 1864, John Hinson, who was also stationed at Wilmington, cooked breakfast for his father, Goodwin, who was scheduled for execution that day. John told the story that Goodwin ate a big meal and seemed to be at peace with himself. Goodwin admonished John not to take any recourse against the Sergeant who had sentenced Goodwin to die since "he was only doing his job, " though John felt that the Sergeant could have saved Goodwin's life by showing some leniency. John continued that his father had to build his own coffin and rode on it on the back of a wagon to the place of execution. John said that it took the firing squad two turns to complete the execution, as Goodwin did not die after the first round was fired. Another version of the story says that one of the officers sent John away before the execution, but that he (John) heard the shots that killed his father. At this point, John told two different versions of the story of himself and the Sergeant. One is that John shot the Sergeant in the next battle with the North, even though his father had asked him not to take any revenge. The other is that John contemplated killing the Sergeant and even had him in his rifle sights, but that the Sergeant was killed by Northern fire before he had a chance to make up his mind. John says that the last time he saw that Sergeant, he was "leaning up against a persimmon tree with a bullet between his eyes." (This second version seems to be the favorite of his grandchildren to whom he told the story so often in his later years.)

[1] John's Find a Grave lists his middle name as "Washington," but I have no other mention in his records.

[2] Goodwin or Goodwyn or Goodin's name is spelled various ways in different records. Since he could not read or write, his name was spelled however it sounded or at the discretion of the person writing it down.

[3] There is some question about the maiden name of Goodwin's wife, Elizabeth, being Poplin. I believe this comes from the fact that his mother's maiden name was Poplin.

John continued with his regiment and about 4 months later, was captured by the Union forces on 3 Jun 1864 at Cold Harbor VA, northeast of Richmond.[4] He was a prisoner of war from then until the end of the war. He was held at nearby White House VA and then transferred to Point Lookout MD[5]. In July 1864 he was transferred to Elmira[6] in upstate NY to what has been called one of the most cruel and filthy Union prisons during the Civil War. John Hinson was released from the prison at Elmira NY on 21 Jun 1865 after he took an Oath of Allegiance to the United States. An article on the Prison Camp at Elmira states that after taking the Oath, the ex-prisoners were issued a train ticket "home". He made his way back to the Union/Stanly County area of North Carolina, probably partially on foot, a distance even today of almost 700 miles.

A little over a year after his release, he married Sarah Jane Rummage of Stanly County NC, on 6 Aug 1866. Sarah Jane was probably born in the Spring of 1850,[7] though her tombstone lists her birthdate as 25 Dec. She was the oldest child of Harris B Rummage (1827-1865) and Relia Ruth Simpson (1828-1893). At the age of 34, Harris had volunteered with Company I of the 52nd Regiment of the North Carolina Infantry on 28 Apr 1862, beginning as a Private and then becoming a Corporal on 15 Aug 1862. He broke his leg when he fell from a train in December 1862. He was away healing until Jan 1864.[8] In August 1864, he was demoted back to Private and was later captured and imprisoned near Petersburg VA on 25 Mar 1865. He was then confined at Point Lookout MD,[9] southeast of Washington DC until 3 Jun 1865 when he was released after taking the Oath of Allegiance. Although he survived the war, Harris died after he got home to Stanly County NC on 9 Aug 1865 and is buried in Bethesda Cemetery in Albemarle, Stanly County NC. (His tombstone lists his rank as Corporal, though I have found no evidence yet that his rank had been re-established.)

John Hinson and had started their married life on (or beside) the farm of her grandfather Nathan Franklin Rummage in Stanly County. They later made their home just off Love Mill Road in northern Union County, in the community around Antioch Baptist Church. Sarah Jane died 26 Jan 1915 and is buried at Antioch Baptist Church, Union County NC. John later[10] went to live with the family of his oldest son, Ruben, for the rest of his life. For many years, he was almost blind and could not care for himself, though he loved telling stories and singing songs for his grandchildren. John died 11 Apr 1931 and is also buried at Antioch, as are many of their descendants. The only likeness that we have on John is a pencil drawing done in his later years by one of his grandchildren.

[4] There are several interesting videos available online discussing the Battle of Cold Harbor. Even though it was considered a Confederate victory, this is where John was captured by the Union forces.

[5] There is an historic marker in Point Lookout State Park, stating "Point Lookout Prisoner-of-War Camp. After the Battle of Gettysburg, the Union established a Prisoner-of-War depot near here. Confederate soldiers and Maryland civilians were imprisoned and guarded by 400 Union troops. With only tents for protection, 3, 384 prisoners died."

[6] It is interesting to read about the conditions at Elmira while John (and over 12, 000 others) were there. Because of the over-crowding (its capacity was only meant to be 4,000), many of the prisoners were trying to survive in just tents in the sometimes below-zero temperatures. During the 12 months that Elmira was used as a prisoner-of-war camp (almost the complete time, John was a prisoner there), 2,970 of the 12,100 died from a combination of malnutrition, exposure to the harsh winter weather, and disease from the poor sanitary conditions. None-the-less, our ancestor, John, survived and was able to make his way home.

[7] Sarah Jane was listed in the June 1850 Stanly County Census as a four-month-old baby, so she was probably born about March 1850. It was not an uncommon practice to assign the birthday of Christ (25 Dec) to a person, if their actual birthdate had been lost or forgotten.

[8] His youngest child, Arthur Harrison Rummage was born 31 Dec 1863, so it is assumed that Harris had been allowed to go home to heal.

[9] It is interesting that both John Hinson and his future father-in-law, Harris B Rummage were held at Point Lookout MD, after being captured, though not at the same time. John had already been transferred to Elmira before Harris was captured.

[10] I have not yet found John in the 1920 census (after Sarah Jane died in 1915). I do not know if he just was not counted or if he was somewhere other than the homes of Ruben or Benjamin. More research is needed.

An Article About Goodwin Hinson[11]

"On March 17, 1862, Goodwin Hinson, 47, and John Hinson, 18, father and son, volunteered to serve in the Confederate States Army.

"They were mustered into Co. C, 42nd Regiment, NC State Troops, at Crawford Farm near Salisbury, May 15, 1862, by Col. G.C. Gibbs.

"John Hinson was left in Salisbury on detached service when the 42nd Regiment was sent to Lynchburg VA, about the first of June to guard Federal Prisoners enclosed in the fairgrounds there. The Company Muster Roll report, dated June 30, 1862, confirms this.

"The next report, for July and August 1862, states that he was present with his Company. He remained with the regiment through all its various moves and several major battles until June of 1864.

"About the first of June 1864, the 42nd Regiment, under command of Gen. D.H. Hill, was ordered to Richmond, VA, and into the line of battle at Cold Harbor. This battle lasted twelve days and was considered a Confederate victory, but it was a cold victory for John Hinson.

"He was captured June 3, 1864, by the Federal troops and taken to White House, VA. From there, he was transferred to Point Lookout MD.

"On July 12, he was transferred to Elmira Prison, NY. He remained at Elmira until June 21, 1865, at which time he was released.

"On the June 30, 1862 Muster Roll report, Goodwin Hinson's name appears in the column as present, but the July and August report states that he deserted July 24, 1862. The records are pretty sketchy, but, apparently, he returned to his company.

"In January of 1863, the 42nd Regiment was moved to Garysburg, NC, where it camped until spring. The Company Muster Roll report for May and June 1863 states that Goodwin Hinson deserted again on April 30. 1863. The next report, for September and October, states that he was 'under arrest at Wilmington NC.'

"The 42nd Regiment moved quite a bit during the summer of 1863 and in October was ordered to Wilmington for more drilling in military tactics. They remained there until February 1864, at which time they were ordered to Sheppardsville, NC.

"According to family members, John Hinson told them of his father's desertion. He said he warned him not to leave again as he would surely be shot. After his capture, Goodwin Hinson was held prisoner at Wilmington, where the rest of his company, including his son, were camped.

"John Hinson told of cooking breakfast for his father and that he ate heartily, knowing that this was his last day to live.

"The Roll of Honor report for Co. C, 42nd Regiment, states that Goodwin Hinson was 47 years old, from Stanly County, and that he was 'shot to death, January 27, 1864, by order of court martial.'

"After the war, John Hinson came to Union County. He and his wife reared their children on a farm, just off the Love Mill Road, in the northern part of the county. After the death of his wife, John moved in with his son, Ruben, and his family.

[11] Civil War Profiles by Jo Ann Stevenson, published 27 Aug 1981 in "The Enquirer-Journal," Monroe North Carolina: "Father, Son Volunteer Together – Goodwin and John Hinson"

"Grandchildren remember him as a gentle man, almost blind, who told them stories about the war and their great grandfather. When they were working in the fields, he would sit in his special chair, on the porch, and sing songs of the Civil War and Confederacy.

"John died April 11, 1931, and was buried beside his wife at Antioch Baptist Church, just a couple of miles from his old home."

Random Census Notes

1830: Fred (Frederick King) Hinson, who is believed to be the father of Goodwin, was enumerated in Montgomery County, with 11 free white persons listed, with no slaves. There is one male, aged 15-19, listed. Goodwin, who was reportedly born in 1815, would match this person, but no additional names are listed in this census.[13]

1840: In the 1840 US Census for West Pee Dee River, Montgomery County NC,[14] only Goodwin and one female (Elizabeth), both aged 20-29, are listed under his name. He was employed in Agriculture. These records were not very informative if you were not a slave owner.
On the same page, we find Frederick Hinson, with 10 free white persons listed.

1850: In the 1850 Smiths, Stanly County Census records, we find Frederick Hinson as a 60-year-old farmer, with a real estate value of $400. In his home are his wife, Nancy (50), Rhoda (32), Elizabeth (32), Lucy (28), and Lucy Poplin (Nancy's 98-year-old mother). Next door is his son, Isiah Hinson (26) and [12] It is interesting to note that in the 1900 census, there were questions about the number of children born and the number of children living. To these questions, Sarah Jane answered that she had given birth to 12 children, but at that time 10 were living. I do not have any record of other children who had lived past birth or were given names or were buried at Antioch. Sadly enough, her young son, Moses, would not survive to the next census, though I have not learned the cause of his death.

[13] In the 1859 will of Frederick King Hinson, there is no mention of Goodwin. Had there been a parting of ways or was Goodwin not his son? This is the only reason that I have some lingering questions about Goodwin possibly not being the son of Frederick. Since, on the 1830 Census, there were only ages and gender, but no names of children This does not prove that Goodwin is that young man, though that is what we presume.

[14] Stanly County was not created until 1841.

Elizabeth (23), with their daughter, Delitha (Tobitha?) (3) and son, George W (2).
I have not yet found Goodwin and Elizabeth's family in the 1850 census records.

1860: In the 1860 Stanly County Census, John is listed as a 15-year-old in the home of his parents, Goodwin (#267) (age 45) and Elizabeth (age 35), along with his siblings, who are listed below.
Harris (#208) (age 33) and Ruthy (age 27) Rummage have a farm, where his real estate value is $750 and personal estate is $300. The children listed are Sarah (9), Martha (7), Judy (6), Virginia (4) and Rosa (2).

1870: In the 1870 Stanly County Census,[15] John and Sarah Hinson (# 181), along with their two young boys, Ruben (age 3) and John (Benjamin) (age 1) are living next door to her grandparents, Nath(an) Rummage (age 80) and his second wife, (also named) Rebecca (age 65) (# 180). Since there was no value listed for John's property, they may have been on Nath's property. Sarah's sisters, Judith (age 17) and V.A. (Virginia) (age 14) were listed with their grandparents. It had only been 5 years since Harris, their father and Nathan's son, had died. His widow, Ruth Rummage and her three youngest children, Rosa (age 11), Ruth (age 8), and Arthur (age 6) were living at #207, where she was listed as "keeping house" and had an estimated personal estate value of $200 and a real estate value of $200.

1880: In the 1880 census for John and Sarah J Hinson in Furr Twp, Stanly County NC, there is a listing for a daughter, Elisabeth J, age 8, between Martha and James, and Rebecca Jane is not listed at all, and several ages are probably "guess-timations". I believe this person is really Rebecca Jane, since I have no other records of an "Elisabeth J".

1890: There was a fire in the Commerce Building in Washington DC in 1921 that destroyed most of the 1890 US Census Records. Among them were the records of Stanly and Union Counties NC.

1900: By 1900, John (age 59) and (Sarah) Jane (age 56) Hinson were living in New Salem, Union County NC, where John's occupation is listed as "Farm Laborer". The children still at home were Moses (age 13), Raymond (age 12), and Jackson (age 8), the older two also being listed as "Farm Laborers". According to the record, no one in the home was able to read or write.

1910: In 1910, John (age 74), Sarah J (age 65), Ramon(d) (age 20), and Jackson (age 18) Hinson are living in New Salem, Union County, where their farm was rented, and John was listed as an Employer and the sons were listed as Wage Earners. An interesting fact from this census is that there is a place for the number of children born (12) and number surviving (9). I have no record of two additional children, so I assume they were premature births or miscarriages. By this time, Moses had died (in 1905). Though neither John or Sarah Jane could write, the two youngest boys (Raymond and Jackson) could read and write and attended school according to the census taker.

1920: I have not yet located John Hinson in the 1920 census of either Union or Stanly County NC. His wife, Sarah Jane had died in 1915. He was not listed in the homes of Ruben or Benjamin at this census.

1930: By 1930, John (age 93 listed on census, probably closer to 86), a widower, was living with his son Ruben's family in Goose Creek, Union County NC. He died the next year, on 11 Apr 1931 in Goose Creek, Union County NC.

[15] It appears that for the 1870 Census, the entire Stanly County is enumerated as "Albemarle Township," so it is difficult to determine in what part of the County they actually lived and how close these homes actually were to each other.

[16] Could some of these be his children from a previous marriage, since he and Adeline were not married until 1869 [or were they a couple earlier? – that could explain Lucy] and Nicie was already 27 when they married? Some records show that Irenus married a Eunice (Nicey could be a shortened form of Eunice) in 1880, but Adeline Nicie lived until 1923.
Lucy Hinson (abt 1861-). If Lucy is the daughter of Goodwin, she would not have yet been born yet for the 1860 Census, in which all the other children are listed. Lucy (age 9) and Nicey (age 27) Hinson are shown in the home of an Isaiah and Adaline Mayberry in the 1870 Stanly County Census. Is Nicey the mother or the older sister? Lucy is not with Ireneus and Nicie Huneycutt's family in the 1880 Stanly County Census. Then, Nicy HINSON, aged 66, a widow, is listed in the 1910 Stanly County Census with single daughter, Lou, aged 45. Lou Hinson is the informant on the death certificate of Nicey Hinson in 1923. It may take more research to find out if Lucy Hinson is possibly the youngest child of Goodwin Hinson or more likely the first child of his oldest child, Adeline Nicey. If so, her father's name is not listed.

[17] He was listed as a stepson in 1880 census (his or hers?).

[18] There are several Benjamin Hinson entries in the Civil War from this area in NC, though we have not confirmed any of them as John Hinson's brother. Some records even mention Goodwin as "Benjamin Goodwin Hinson" and that could explain the prevalence of the name "Benjamin" in this Hinson line.

[19] If this is true, wouldn't John have shared this in his stories later? I have not heard this mentioned before. I believe that the Elijah who died is from a different County in NC. More research would be needed.

Frederick Hinson's Will Interpretation[20]

In the name of God Amen. I Frederick Hinson of the County of Stanly in the State of North Carolina being of sound and perfect mind and memory (blessed by God) do this twenty ninth day of September in the year of our lord Eighteen hundred and fifty three, make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following, that is to say,

First I give and bequesth unto my beloved wife Nancy Hinson for and during her natural lifetime or widowhood, all of the plantation whereon I now live containing three hundred acres of land with appurtinances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining and also all of my other property money & notes of every kind and description which is not hereafter particularly disposed of otherways by me. I also will & bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy Hinson a certain tract of land unimproved containing one hundred & twenty five acres lying on the waters of Bear Creek adjoining the lands of Martin Hinson, Jacob Coble, and John Poplin to have and to hold her own property with full power to sell and make a good title wherever she wishes to dispose of it.

Secondly I give unto my daughter Rhody Hinson one bed, bedstead, and furniture, one red chest, and one table.

Thirdly I give unto my daughter Elizabeth Hinson, one bed, bedstead, and furniture and one red chest.

Fourthly I give unto my daughter Lucy Hinson one bed, bedstead and furniture also one chest.

Fifthly I also will that after the decease or marriage of my wife, that my three daughters who are now at home with me, namely Rhoda Hinson, Elizabeth & Lucy Hinson shall have all the plantation with the apportenances thereunto belong, whereon I now live containing three hundred acres of Land to share and share alike or equal [20] This information comes from Our Hansons, Hensons, Hinsons – A History of the Hansons by William Ashley Hinson, pg 254. Frederick King Hinson is presumed to be the father of Goodwin Hinson, John's father. Frederick King Hinson died in 1859. Though Goodwin was still living at the time of this will, there is no mention of his name, so was he truly a son of Frederick or had he already received his portion, or had he and his father "parted ways"?

in it provided they stay with me and their mother as long as either or both of us shall live, and take care of us in health and sickness and in health.[21]

Seventhly I will that after the decease of my wife all of my personal property that remains, and is not particularly disposed of in this will shall be sold at public sale on a reasonable credit by my Executors (hereafter to be appointed) and the proceeds to be equally divided among all of my heirs at law to share equally in the whole amount namely Samuel Hinson, William Hinson, Jordan Hinson, Rhoda Hinson, Jeremiah Hinson, Elizabeth Hinson, Mary Poplin, Lucy Hinson, Sarah Curlee, Martin Hinson and Doctor Isaiah Hinson.

And I hereby make and ordain my worthy sons Samuel Hinson and Jeremiah Hinson Executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I the said Frederick Hinson have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal, the day and year above written

Signed Sealed published and declared by the said Frederick Hinson as his last will and testament in the presence of us who are present at the…

[21] There is no "Sixthly."
